DESCRIPTION

Hunters are delighted to bring to the market this impressive HMO period property of character currently being ran as a commercial property, thoughtfully converted into six one-bedroom apartments, positioned in a pleasant open setting overlooking Trinity Road Church and Gardens.

Of the six apartments, four are fully self-contained, each benefiting from their own private bathroom and kitchen, while the remaining two apartments share a bathroom, making the property well suited to a mix of holiday letting, long-term rental, or serviced accommodation. This flexible layout offers strong investment potential and an opportunity not to be missed.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall with access to the cellar and staircase leading to the upper floors. The ground floor hosts two one-bedroom apartments, one of which benefits from two bathrooms, access to a private rear garden, and separate rear access. To the first floor, there are two further one-bedroom apartments, along with shared bathroom facilities, and a large storage room, with the front-facing accommodation enjoying views over Trinity Road Church and Gardens. The top floor completes the property with two additional one-bedroom apartments, one of which enjoys far-reaching views towards Oliver's Mount and Scarborough Castle.

The property is located within Scarborough's highly regarded South Cliff area, well placed for local primary and secondary schools, Scarborough University, the Clock Tower, South Cliff Gardens, Scarborough Town Centre and South Bay. The nearby Ramshill area also provides a range of everyday shopping amenities.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the scale, setting and investment potential on offer.

Please note we have been informed anyone who requires a mortgage would need commercial finance.
