IF YOU LIVED HERE...

A long entrance hallway gives the home a calm, orderly feel from the outset, with warm timber flooring underfoot and useful built-in storage along the way. At the front, the first bedroom sits in the bay window, a generous double with shutters, soft neutral décor and plenty of natural light. Just behind, the reception room is a bright, comfortable space with a fireplace and well balanced proportions, making it easy to settle into day-to-day living.

Further along, the kitchen is neatly arranged with gloss cabinetry, timber worktops and a door straight out to the garden. The bathroom sits centrally and is finished in light, simple tones with a bath and overhead shower, while the second bedroom is set to the rear, giving it a quieter, tucked-away feel and a pleasant outlook.

Outside, the shared garden is a lovely bonus. There is a good stretch of lawn, space for sitting out, and a feeling of greenery that softens everything. Altogether, it is a home that feels easy to live in, carefully kept, and ready to move into.

WHAT ELSE?

- Lloyd Park is a real extension of your doorstep here, with multiple entrances nearby, the William Morris Gallery within the park, and the popular Lloyd Park Market at weekends.
- Deeney's has a Walthamstow outpost at the William Morris Gallery, so coffee or lunch after a walk round the park is an easy local ritual.
- Walthamstow Central gives you both the Victoria line and the Weaver line Overground, with direct trains on to Liverpool Street.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"I've always appreciated how welcoming and peaceful it feels here. It's a place where you can relax, unwind, and feel settled straight away. The neighbourhood has also been a wonderful part of the experience, offering both convenience and a friendly atmosphere.

I hope the next owner will enjoy this home as much as I have and create their own happy memories here. It's a special place, which I'm sure will continue to bring joy for years to come."
