Behind the brand

More than 65 years ago, a small guesthouse in the South Tyrolean Alps laid the foundation stone for the Falkensteiner Michaeler Tourism Group (FMTG) – one of the leading regional providers and developers of tourism services and products in Central and Southeastern Europe.

To this day, FMTG is an owner-managed company with strong family roots. Profound industry know-how in tourism, many years of management and development experience, short decision-making processes, an efficient international commercial organisation and a unique can-do mentality have made our company a successful hotel operator and developer with more than 2,000 employees and 30 Hotels & Residences in seven countries.

- 1957 Maria and Josef Falkensteiner open a guest house in Ehrenburg / South Tyrol

Residences Aurora

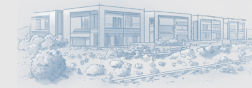

The Residences Aurora, located in the 5-star Punta Skala Resort in Croatia, offer luxurious seaside living. Surrounded by turquoise waters and Mediterranean vegetation, they blend modern design with natural elegance.

This exclusive development consists of 88 high-end apartments across four buildings, available in various sizes—from cozy units to spacious family residences. Depending on preference, residents can choose between terraces with panoramic views or gardens with direct access to nature. Large glass surfaces and natural materials create a harmonious atmosphere, seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor spaces. Additionally, residents benefit from the amenities of the neighboring 5-star hotels and a wide range of leisure activities within the resort.

Construction of the Residences Aurora began in September 2024, with completion scheduled for the end of 2025.

Resort Punta Skala

Surrounded by the Adriatic Sea, laced with stretches of coastline whose different textures bear witness to the incredible diversity of nature, you will find yourself in a very special maritime location. Where longing meets the feeling of pure freedom and waves break gently on rock formations, you have arrived in the Mediterranean landscape of Croatia – on the remote Punta Skala peninsula.

The incredible expanse of forests contrasts with the glittering blue of the open sea. Lose yourself in daydreams while a gentle breeze blows around your nose. Recharge your batteries under the Dalmatian sun and explore the surroundings in your own way – whether playing sports on the spacious grounds or in the tranquillity of the meditative sound of the sea.
