Property Details

This superb two-bedroom top-floor apartment is set within a handsome Georgian-style semi-detached townhouse, with access to residents' gardens, a swimming pool, and a private garage. The elegant stucco façade, traditional sash windows, and walled front garden with wrought-iron railings create a striking first impression. The open-plan reception is full of character, featuring exposed brickwork from the original fireplace, a feature fireplace, a high vaulted ceiling with a remote-controlled skylight, and a column radiator, providing both warmth and contemporary appeal. The adjoining black-gloss kitchen has solid worktops, a gas hob, oven, integrated dishwasher and washing machine, and a Quooker tap. The principal bedroom, painted in a calming blue, offers built-in wardrobes and loft access, while the second double bedroom also has fitted storage. The modern bathroom features white herringbone tiles, geometric accents, underfloor heating, gold fixtures, a rainfall shower, and a matte black heated towel rail, creating a stylish and inviting home.
