“The annexe has been an incredibly valuable part of the home for us. It’s given us real flexibility over the years – whether that’s having family stay comfortably with their own space, or simply enjoying the extra independence it provides. Having a separate lounge, kitchen, bedroom and shower room means it feels completely self-contained, which has worked perfectly for multi-generational living. It’s one of those features you don’t realise how useful it is until you have it.”
