EPC C

Located in a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Cippenham Village, this beautifully presented link-detached family home offers stylish, modern living with excellent space and superb convenience.

The property boasts three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a standout principal bedroom featuring a bespoke fitted wardrobe with scope to create an en suite, subject to the necessary consents.

On the ground floor, you are welcomed by a bright and spacious 17'7 reception room, leading through to a stunning kitchen diner that has been recently renovated with sleek modern units. Additional upgrades include designer radiators, newly fitted stylish grey doors, and a striking media wall that creates a true cinema-style living experience. A conservatory to the rear provides valuable additional space, ideal for utility appliances or a versatile second sitting area.

Further benefits include a contemporary family bathroom, loft storage, double-glazed windows, gas central heating, and a private rear garden perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The property also offers driveway parking for two vehicles, an EV charge point, and excellent potential for a garage conversion.

Security and peace of mind are well catered for, with Ring home security cameras and a fully fitted alarm system throughout. Ideally located within the catchment of sought-after local schools and just a 15-minute walk or 5-minute drive to Burnham Station, the property enjoys fast and direct access into Central London via the Elizabeth Line.

This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a turnkey family home in a highly convenient and desirable location.
