This generous and beautifully maintained four-bedroom semi-detached home is located on a sought-after residential street in Kenton. The ground floor offers a spacious through lounge, a modern fitted kitchen, a large utility room that can double as an office, and a guest WC. Upstairs, you'll find four well-sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom with WC.

The property also benefits from a sizeable rear garden and private driveway providing off-street parking. Well-regarded schools are within easy walking distance, and the area is well served by transport links and a variety of local shops. This property is an excellent opportunity for families.
