The gardens incorporate what is believed to be a Roman spring-fed pond, with a paved terrace providing an area for entertaining. The main entrance opens into a welcoming reception hall, with stairs rising to the first floor and doors leading into the living accommodation. The inviting sitting room centres around a large redbrick fireplace with inset wood burner, whilst oak, glazed doors connect to the conservatory, allowing the spaces to be opened together or separated. Designed with entertaining in mind, the conservatory features a bar and South African-inspired Braai, with bi-fold doors opening onto the front terrace. The dining hall leads through French doors into a versatile room with glazed roof, previously used as a gym/office. A connecting door leads into the double garage and workshop, whilst another opens into the utility room. The fitted kitchen is positioned towards the rear and features a range of cabinetry, granite worktops, range cooker and integrated dishwasher, with a glazed utility room beyond providing further storage. On the first floor are four bedrooms and a dressing room, formerly a single bedroom. The principal bedroom has an en-suite bathroom, whilst the remaining bedrooms are served by two bath/shower rooms. Set within a total plot of 0.27 of an acre, the property is tucked away within the development, positioned at the end of a shared private driveway and set behind established privacy hedges. A tarmac driveway leads to an integral double garage with workshop and electric door, providing excellent parking for multiple vehicles. The front garden incorporates a pretty pond, believed to be a Roman pond fed by a natural spring. The vendors have installed a pump to ensure a continuous movement of water. The pond when lit up at night gives a magical ambience and in summer the paved area provides a sun trap and place to relax whilst listening to the soothing waterfall (lights not included). Above the pond lies a further paved terrace, adjoining the conservatory and providing an additional area for entertaining. Further gardens extend to the rear of the house and are laid predominantly to lawn. Situation

The property sits within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in North Woodchester, an attractive and well-established village, ideally positioned between the market town of Stroud and the popular town of Nailsworth, with convenient access to the A46. Set within the beautiful Woodchester Valley, the village sits beneath the imposing Selsley Common, providing an enviable combination of rural surroundings and excellent accessibility. The village has a strong community feel and a useful range of local amenities, including a primary school, the much-loved Post Office and shop, Parish Church and two popular village pubs, The Old Fleece and The Royal Oak. The surrounding countryside is immediately accessible, with Selsley Common and the network of footpaths through the Woodchester Valley providing wonderful opportunities for walking, riding and enjoying the local landscape. Woodchester Park, with its extensive woodland, lakes and walking trails, and the historic Woodchester Mansion, are also close by and are particularly appealing places to explore. Adding to the area's distinctive character, the village is also home to a privately owned vineyard, producing wines commercially for the local area. This, together with the surrounding farmland, woodland and commons, gives North Woodchester a particularly attractive rural identity. Nailsworth and Stroud are both within easy reach and provide a comprehensive range of everyday amenities. Nailsworth is renowned for its independent shops, cafés, restaurants and food businesses, whilst Stroud offers a broader selection of shopping, leisure, cultural and recreational facilities, as well as a popular farmers' market. Stroud also provides an excellent transport connection, with direct Great Western Railway services to London Paddington, with the fastest journeys taking around 1 hour 24 minutes. The area is particularly well served for schooling, with a wide choice of highly regarded state and independent schools within the surrounding area. These include Beaudesert Park School on Minchinhampton Common, Wycliffe College at Stonehouse, and Stroud High School and Marling School, both of which are selective grammar schools.
