

Property Description

In a prime location in Buckingham's vibrant town centre, this one-bedroom flat is ideal for professionals, students, or couples, the property is just a short stroll from Buckingham University and the town's array of shops, cafes, and amenities.

Privately tucked away this flat offers bright and well-arranged accommodation, making it ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers or investors seeking convenience without compromising on privacy.

The property is accessed via a central hall that leads into the spacious open-plan kitchen/lounge. This generous dual-purpose room provides an excellent social and everyday living space, with clearly defined areas for cooking, dining and relaxing.

A door from the hall also leads into the large double bedroom, which offers ample space for furnishings. Completing the layout is a separate WC, positioned conveniently off the hall.

Secure and well arranged, this tucked-away property combines practical living with excellent proximity to Buckingham's amenities, shops and transport connections—making it a rare and appealing opportunity in a desirable location.
