1 Waunffrwd

Login, Whitland

A remarkable barn conversion of considerable quality, situated down a shared private track within the West Carmarthenshire countryside, close to the villages of Login and Llanfallteg. This fabulous home has many wow factor surprises, which includes a breath-taking landscaped enclosed walled garden, a separate studio barn and a wealth of incredibly lovely architectural features and character. The accommodation is of a manageable size, providing 2 bedrooms with an open-plan kitchen/living space, conservatory and shower room. There are exposed stone walls, a mezzanine/crog loft, semi-vaulted ceiling, exposed beams, fireplace with multifuel burner and all the décor is beautifully presented and maintained with excellent attention to style and detail. The high standards of the inside continue out to a simply stunning garden of high merit, being a marvellous and cleverly designed feature with hot tub, waterfall and numerous seating areas. The property further boasts a modern air source heating system, making this a fabulous home with energy saving benefits. Viewing is a must to fully appreciate the many unique qualities on offer.

Situation

The property is situated approximately a quarter of a mile down a shared private track, within the periphery of the West Carmarthenshire village of Login. The track is shared with 3 other properties, 2 neighbouring properties are within close proximity and the third neighbour is out of sight, approximately 150m away. The general area would be described as agricultural, with lush rolling green fields and woodland areas. Login is a small village with a handful of properties and Baptist church. Approximately 7 miles distance, are the towns of Narberth and Whitland, which both offer a range of amenities and services, to include artisan and independent retailers, health and educational facilities. The near by Preseli hills are located within the Pembrokeshire national park, roughly 6 miles distant and provide fantastic walks and pony trekking. The highly regarded Pembrokeshire coastline is also within a comfortable drive, offering many beaches and coves to explore.
