OUTSIDE

The property is approached through double wooden gates, opening onto a generous off-road parking area with space for numerous vehicles. This leads to the attached stone barn. The garden wraps around the property and is predominantly laid to lawn, with paved and decked seating areas providing excellent spaces for outdoor entertaining. There is also a greenhouse, small orchard containing pear and apple trees, garden shed, bin store and log store. The elevated seating areas enjoy a lovely outlook across the valley towards Whitecroft, whilst the garden itself is particularly PRIVATE AND SECLUDED. There is further gated pedestrian access leading directly onto the lane to the rear of the property.

BARN

15'7" x 10'10" (4.75m x 3.30m)

With an impressive 18'5" height into the apex, meaning potential for a two-storey conversion. The barn offers considerable versatility and scope for redevelopment, subject to the necessary consents, potentially providing an annexe, holiday let, studio, workshop or additional living accommodation (subject to the relevant permissions).
