Exclusive to P&R Property — Rarely does a home tick quite so many boxes. This impressive three-bedroom mid-terrace on Frederick Street has been finished to a genuinely high standard throughout, with a luxury modern kitchen and a beautifully appointed bathroom that wouldn't look out of place in a boutique hotel. Two separate reception rooms offer real flexibility for families or professionals, whilst a private rear garden with decking and raised planters provides an outdoor space you'll actually want to spend time in. With Luton train station just a two-minute walk away and the town centre moments from your door, this one really must be seen to be appreciated. Available now.
