Property Description

 DEPOSIT ALTERNATIVE AVAILABLE  Set within the grounds of a neighbouring property and enjoying a wonderfully private, leafy outlook, this detached bungalow offers the peace of countryside living with the convenience of Shipston-on-Stour only a five-minute drive away. The property is approached via a gated, shared driveway offering both privacy and security. The entrance hallway has useful built-in storage and leads into the heart of the home, a superb kitchen/breakfast room with exposed ceiling beams. A breakfast bar provides informal dining space, and a charming stained-glass internal window peeks through to the living room. A separate laundry room off the kitchen keeps washing and utility tasks out of sight. A few steps lead down from the kitchen into the impressive living room which has wood flooring and a stone fireplace with open grate, windows on two sides overlook the surrounding gardens. French doors open onto a patio seating area, leading down steps to the rest of the garden which also includes a garden room with a decked area and shed attached. All three bedrooms are doubles, and each has its own private en-suite shower room, which makes the property ideal for families. The en-suites are finished in a crisp white with shower enclosures, vanity basins and heated towel rails. This is a rare opportunity to rent a spacious, single-storey home in a genuinely rural setting, within easy reach of Shipston's shops, schools and amenities and the wider Cotswolds.
