Horsefair Cottage is a beautifully presented four-bedroom period home set in the heart of Charlton Kings, opposite the Grade II listed St Mary's Church. This larger-than-average Victorian cottage sits within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, just a short walk from Cheltenham town centre and well placed for Balcarras and St Edward's schools. Positioned on historic Horsefair Street, the location offers easy access to countryside walks, local amenities and Cheltenham's Regency core, with a regular bus service stopping just outside the property. The award-winning Royal pub and Dunkertons Cider & Street Food Market are both within walking distance.

Dating from the late 19th century, the property blends character features with practical updates. The ground floor includes an elegant sitting room with bay window and feature fireplace, a separate dining room overlooking a south-facing courtyard garden, a modern kitchen with ceramic hob, dishwasher, washing machine and breakfast bar, a shower room with WC, and a fourth bedroom which also works well as a study or snug. Upstairs are three furnished double bedrooms, one with a standard double, one with a small queen, and one with a bunk and single, along with a bathroom with shower over bath. Most rooms include fitted shutters and thoughtful built-in storage.

Outside, the low-maintenance garden is laid with Cotswold stone and provides access to a rear private lane with off-street parking for two vehicles and an EV charging point. The property is offered part furnished or furnished by agreement. Pets considered.
