Tenure – Freehold

Local Authority – South Somerset District Council

Summary

This unique detached stone character property dates back to the 1800s and is steeped in local history. Originally owned and built by the Goodford family, who once held the majority of the land in and around Chilton Cantelo, the property formed part of an historic estate the original main Grade II listed house is now being used as a private school. The Lodge offers an exciting opportunity for those looking to run a cattery business, with purpose-built facilities already in place and ready for immediate use. Set within a generous plot, the property also benefits from a self-contained one-bedroom annexe, a range of useful outbuildings, ample off-road parking, and extensive outdoor space. Subject to the necessary planning permission, there is further potential to extend and enhance the property.

Amenities

Chilton Cantelo is a small rural village, lying in between Mudford and Marston Magna and is home to the former Park School. There are nearby village Primary Schools and numerous public houses. The large commercial town of Yeovil is approximately a 10 minute drive to the south where all day to day amenities can be found together with secondary schooling and Yeovil College. Yeovil has its own train stations whilst there is a further station at nearby Sherborne.

Services
