Forest Side Horsted Lane

Isfield, Uckfield

A seldom found 1920's three bedroom detached chalet style bungalow occupying a stunning plot of approx 0.17 of an acre adjoining woodland to the rear and surrounded by open countryside. Situated off a country lane in this ever favoured village.

Forest Side is a distinctive country home with an attractive mock Tudor gable and versatile accommodation throughout extending to 1316 sq ft. The property lies in an elevated position with a large rear garden having a pleasant backdrop of the woodland. The property has enormous potential for enlargement to create a substantial family home, off the first floor landing are two large attic spaces, many of the property on the lane have been dramatically enlarged.

The property is entered via a central hallway with a refitted shower room found nearby, there is generous size sitting with wood burning stove, across the hallway is a dining room which continues through to the third bedroom/office. To one side of the shower room is a spacious bedroom with built-in wardrobes. The kitchen/breakfast room is found to the rear of the property, made up by a range of matching units to one side and there are sliding patio doors give access to a conservatory.
