SITUATION

This property is situated in Milton Abbot. Milton Abbot is a quiet and unspoilt, historic village located just outside the Tamar Valley National Landscape. The village has strong connections to the famed Bedford Estate, including through the nearby, notable Grade I Listed Endsleigh House, and a distinctive architectural style, with Edwin Lutyens and Edward Blore having designed many of the village centre's buildings, most of which are now Grade II Listed. Tavistock, 6.5 miles away, is a thriving market town in West Devon offering a superb range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities, including the sought-after private and independent school, Mount Kelly. Plymouth is 21 miles to the south and Exeter lies 40 miles to the northeast, providing air, rail and motorway connections to London and the rest of the UK

DESCRIPTION

Located in the highly regarded village of Milton Abbot, this Grade II listed terraced property offers spacious and well-presented accommodation arranged over three floors. Rich in period character, the home combines historic charm with practical living space, making it an attractive proposition for a variety of buyers. The accommodation is of generous proportions throughout, comprising three bedrooms arranged across the upper floors, together with versatile reception space on the ground floor. The layout provides flexibility for modern living whilst retaining the character and features expected of a listed home. A particular feature of the property is the rear garden, which is of an excellent size for a village setting and provides an ideal area for outdoor entertaining, gardening, or simply enjoying a private and tranquil environment. This property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a Grade II listed home of character within a sought-after village, offering both substantial accommodation and a good-sized garden.

To the left, the sitting room is full of character, featuring a charming open fireplace, newly fitted timber-framed window in keeping with the listed status, and built-in bookcases. Beyond, the kitchen enjoys views over the rear of the property and is well-equipped with a double oven, induction hob, and space for additional appliances. To the right of the hallway is a versatile third bedroom/snug. The staircase rises to the first floor and also provides access to the lower ground floor. On the first floor, the generous landing benefits from a front aspect window and leads to two well-sized bedrooms. Bedroom Two is a comfortable double, while Bedroom One is particularly impressive, enjoying dual aspect windows with views, an open fireplace, and excellent proportions. The lower ground floor offers further flexible accommodation. The hallway leads to a family bathroom with both bath and separate shower, a separate WC, and a study/music room with an adjoining storage area.
