London SE6 - £1,350,000

A Rare Legacy: Possibly the Last Detached Edwardian House in the Culverley Green Conservation Area – Coming to Market for the First Time in Over 50 Years

For the first time in over half a century, this detached Edwardian home spanning 3,611 sq.ft over three floors is coming to market. This represents a landmark opportunity to purchase one of, if not the largest, non-extended Edwardian houses in the prestigious Culverley Green Conservation Area. As one of the very few remaining detached residences of this size, this cherished home is a masterclass in period grandeur, featuring original marble fireplaces, stained glass windows, and ornate cornicing, whilst meeting contemporary practical requirements, such as off-street parking for multiple vehicles.

Offered to the market freehold and chain-free, the property is a "blank canvas" for the discerning buyer. Entirely non-extended, it boasts exceptional development potential via the vast loft, a rear kitchen extension and the ability to convert the separate garage. The 100ft south-facing walled garden, complete with herbs, roses and mature fruit trees, provides a private sanctuary just 11 minutes to London Bridge.
