Nestled in the picturesque village of Endmoor, this traditional stone-built cottage offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers to take their first step onto the property ladder. Perfectly proportioned, this home provides plenty of scope for personalisation, tailored to suit your style. The ground floor boasts a cosy lounge with an open fire, as well as a glazed door seamlessly connecting to the rear garden, ideal for enjoying the stunning woodland and farmland views. The kitchen provides space for freestanding appliances and offers convenient access to a generous storage cupboard under the stairs. Upstairs, you'll find two generous bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside, the low-maintenance garden, along with two practical outdoor stores, allows you to enjoy the peaceful natural surroundings with minimal upkeep.
