Bricks Estate Agents is delighted to present this two-bedroom first-floor maisonette to rent in Ashtree Court, on the sought-after Abbeyfields development. With its own street-level entrance and two allocated parking spaces, the property offers the convenience of private access and off-street parking.

A private internal staircase leads up to the first-floor landing and into the bright, dual-aspect reception room. There's space for both a sofa and a dining table, while a Juliet balcony with wrought-iron railings adds character to the room.

The separate fitted kitchen features white gloss cabinetry and contrasting worktops, with an integrated electric oven, a four-ring electric hob and an extractor. There's also space for a washing machine and a freestanding fridge-freezer.
