Description

This charming two-bedroom semi-detached house dates from the 1920s and offers well-proportioned accommodation with considerable potential for refurbishment and improvement.

The property is entered via an entrance hall, leading to a sitting room featuring a fireplace and a useful storage cupboard. To the rear, the kitchen incorporates a dining area and provides access to a downstairs toilet, offering a practical layout for everyday living.

Upstairs, there are two generous double bedrooms, both benefiting from attractive open views to the front and rear of the house. A family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation.

Outside, the property benefits from a front garden and a driveway providing off-road parking. In addition, there is a garage and a sizeable rear garden, offering ample outdoor space and further potential to enhance the property.

Situation

Mentioned in the doomsday book and within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), Mickleham is centrally situated between the towns of Leatherhead and Dorking, situated at the foot of Box Hill and surrounded by open countryside.

Amenities include St. Michaels infant school, Box Hill private school, village hall, playground and 2 popular public houses and restaurant. Dorking and Leatherhead are just a short drive away and offer a comprehensive range of shopping, social, recreational, and educational amenities.

Box Hill & Westhumble railway station offers a service to both Victoria and Waterloo and there are regular trains from Leatherhead The M25 is accessed 3 miles to the north via the A24 to Leatherhead Junction 9.
