Invest in Hull's city-centre regeneration with projected net yields of up to 7.43%.

Whitefriars is an exclusive collection of premium apartments in the heart of Hull, offering investors an attractive entry point into the UK buy-to-let market. Combining contemporary city living with an established rental market and ongoing regeneration, the development presents an opportunity for rental income and potential long-term capital growth.

Why Invest in Hull?

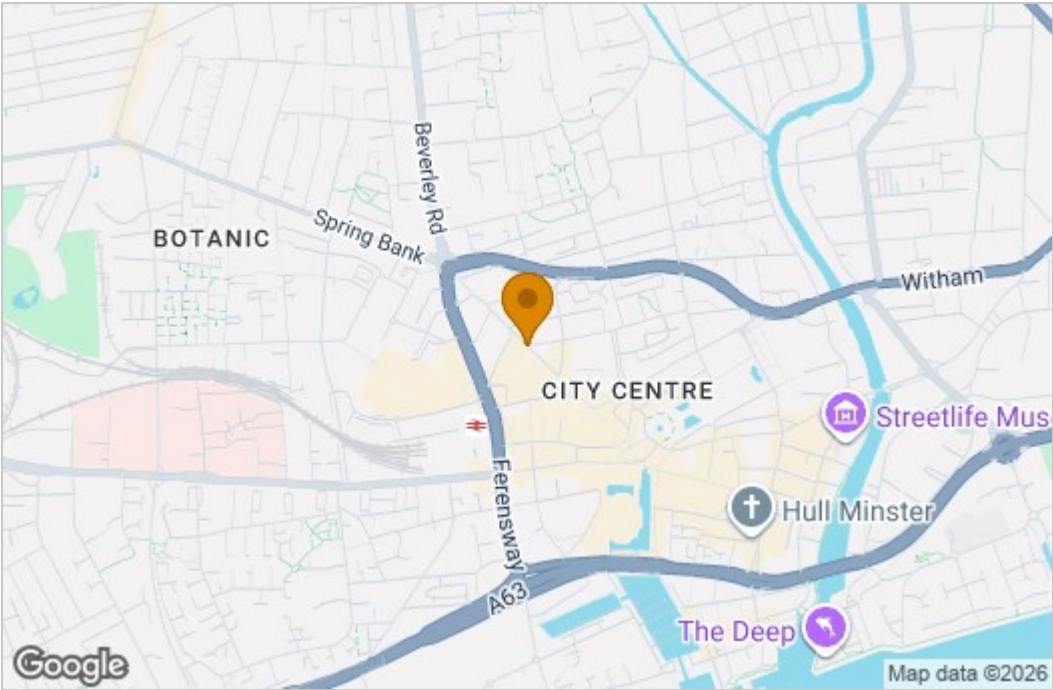

Hull offers comparatively accessible property prices and a diverse tenant base of young professionals, graduates, students and key workers. Supported by the University of Hull, local employment and continued investment in the city centre and waterfront, Hull presents an exciting opportunity for property investors.
