THE PROPERTY

A charming stone cottage offering flexible accommodation comprising entrance porch, sitting/dining room with fireplace (not tested), generous garden/sitting room overlooking the rear garden, kitchen, utility room, cloakroom, inner hall, large landing/study area, 3 bedrooms and bathroom with separate shower over.

OUTSIDE

Outside the property is approached via a central pathway to a stone wall enclosed front garden, lawned and a lovely view of the church. The rear garden has a paved terrace/patio leading to the lawned garden enclosed by laurel and other hedging, a garden shed, a water tap and a side gate that leads to a parking bay approximately 9.6m x 2.8m providing parking for 1/2 cars.

SITUATION

Odcombe village amenities include a village hall offering a varied range of social activities and a parish church. The nearby village of Montacute has additional local facilities, including a petrol filling station and village shop, public house and Montacute House owned by the National Trust.

The regional centre of Yeovil is about 2 miles away, providing a wide range of shopping, business and recreational facilities. The A303 access is about 4 miles away, linking with the M3 to London. Mainline railway stations in Yeovil and Crewkerne have a regular service to London (Waterloo), taking about 2½ hours. Golf clubs at Yeovil, Sherborne and Windwhistle (Chard).

DIRECTIONS

What3words:

///notebook.equipment.strapping

From Yeovil, take the A37, then turn left at the college roundabout onto Preston Road. At the next roundabout (Asda) take the first exit, followed by the third exit at the next mini roundabout onto Bluebell Road. At the next mini roundabout, take the first exit to Odcombe. Follow up the hill passing the village hall on your right, and at the junction turn right. Follow over the sleeping policemen and take the next right into Dray road, and Church Cottage will be found a little way along on your right, identified by a Symonds & Sampson for sale board.
