Offered to the market with no onward chain, this well-presented home has been thoughtfully improved and is ready for its next owners to move straight into. Recently redecorated throughout, the property enjoys a fresh, modern feel, complemented by new patio doors and gas central heating, with the boiler serviced earlier this year. Outside, the enclosed rear garden has been enhanced with new fencing, creating a private space to relax or entertain, while a brick-built storage shed and gated rear access add further practicality. Conveniently situated within a very popular residential area, the property is just a short walk from excellent local amenities and the picturesque Rea Brook Valley Nature Reserve, while also benefiting from easy access to the bypass and being less than two miles from Shrewsbury town centre.

The entrance lobby opens into the spacious breakfast kitchen, providing an excellent hub for day-to-day living with ample space for informal dining. From here, stairs rise to the first floor, while a useful understairs storage cupboard offers excellent practicality and presents potential for conversion into a cloakroom, subject to any necessary consents. A separate living room enjoys a bright and comfortable atmosphere, with newly installed patio doors opening onto the rear garden.

The landing gives access to three bedrooms and the family bathroom. Originally a two-bedroom home, the layout has been adapted with the addition of a partition wall to create a third bedroom, offering flexible accommodation to suit a variety of buyers. The property has also been redecorated throughout, giving it a fresh and welcoming feel.

The enclosed rear garden has been improved with newly installed fencing, providing a private outdoor space to enjoy. A brick-built storage shed offers excellent external storage, while gated rear access adds further convenience. Two communal car parks are located nearby for residents' use.
