Street,
Barton In The Beans,
CV13 0DJ

£1,550,000

GENERAL

Glebe House is an outstanding contemporary village property which has been re-modelled and substantially extended in recent years. There are far reaching southerly country views from all the principal rooms. The house is located on the edge of an exclusive gated development in the tranquil village of Barton in the Beans. The beautifully styled accommodation extends to approximately 4,600 square feet and briefly includes a fabulous living kitchen with bi-fold doors opening onto the terrace, a large Orangery together with three further reception rooms. There are six bedrooms spread over two floors including a sumptuous master bedroom suite with two dressing rooms and exclusive access to a large roof terrace.

LOCATION

Barton in the Beans is located approximately two miles North of Market Bosworth. It lies in some of West Leicestershire's prettiest countryside with some lovely walks from the village towards Congerstone and Shackerstone. The village has a rich history. In the 18th century, it was an important centre for the Baptist Church and the Minister of Barton was the notable clock maker, Samuel Deacon (1746-1816). Market Bosworth is one of the most well regarded and exclusive towns in West Leicestershire. The town services a wide area and is locally considered to be one of the most desirable locations to live. There is a traditional market every Wednesday as well as a Farmers Market that is held on the fourth Sunday of every month. The town is home to one of the area's leading private schools, The Dixie Grammar, and there is also a High School rated by OFSTED as "outstanding" and Primary School. Market Bosworth is a thriving community and offers a generous range of amenities including a library, churches, independent retailers, a Co-Op and restaurants. Local attractions include the Bosworth Country Park, the Ashby Canal and the Bosworth Battlefield Heritage site.

THE HOUSE

The accommodation is arranged over three floors as follows. Lychgate porch with front door opening into the reception hall.
