Description

Located on the ground floor overlooking the main courtyard this apartment has a westerly aspect and patio area where you can sit and soak up the afternoon sun watching the world go by. Looking across to the historic Mount building, which houses the Wellness Centre with pool & spa, you might be tempted to pop across and join in the aquarobics or pop upstairs to the hair/beauty salon. You can also walk under cover through to reception and enjoy some refreshments in the resident's restaurant, cafe and bar, there's always something going on.

The hallway has a useful storage cupboard housing the meters, Anchor selects utilities centrally for the benefit of all residents and you'd receive a monthly statement showing your consumption for water, gas for the underfloor heating and electricity, to be paid by monthly direct debit.

The living room is west facing with double doors opening on to the patio area where you can keep a few pots. A glazed door opens to the compact kitchen which has integrated appliances including; washer/dryer, fridge with freezer compartment, combination oven and two ring induction hob.

The bedroom also enjoys a westerly aspect and has fitted wardrobes giving excellent storage with hanging rails and shelving. The shower room is situated off the bedroom and has fitted storage, a vanity wash basin, low level wc with concealed cistern and a walk in shower.
