LOCATION

The property occupies an outstanding and tranquil non-estate village position within a no through lane and backing directly onto a farm and farmland where sheep can be seen grazing on the land. The property is also conveniently located close to the heart of the village and within a short walk from the local inn/restaurant. The village also provides a useful range of amenities including a church and village hall, cricket club, garden centre farm shop and nature reserve. The village is also in catchment for Barnabas Oley C of E Primary School and Comberton Village College. St Neots and Sandy main line stations are within easy reach and the university City of Cambridge provides excellent commuter links to London.
