The Property

Ground Floor

The heart of the home is the expansive living room, defined by a brick inglenook fireplace and timber beams. A large bay window floods the space with light, flowing naturally into the extended kitchen and dining area. This contemporary hub features a wraparound breakfast bar and integrated appliances. At the rear, a versatile sitting room serves as a snug or office, doubling as a practical utility space with direct garden access.

First Floor

The first floor hosts three bedrooms centered around a landing with a linen cupboard. The primary bedroom is a well-proportioned double featuring a private ensuite shower room. Two additional bedrooms showcase historic timber framing, offering unique charm. These rooms are served by a modern family bathroom with a contemporary suite that beautifully contrasts the home's aged textures.

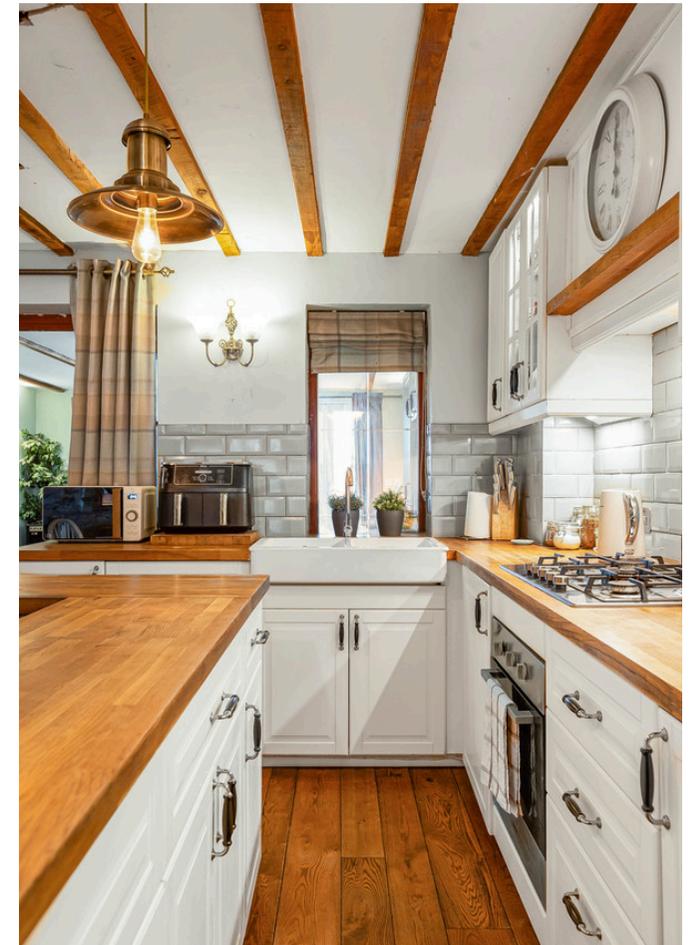

Second Floor

A staircase leads to a versatile attic room, currently used as a large fourth bedroom. Stretching nearly 20 feet, this space is tucked under the eaves with striking exposed beams. While head height is restricted in areas, its generous proportions make it an ideal teenager's den, hobby room, or secluded study.

Externals

The property sits on a substantial plot emphasizing its rural setting. The front garden is a picturesque lawn enclosed by a stone wall with a weeping willow. A side driveway provides parking for four vehicles. The west-facing rear garden is a true highlight, backing onto uninterrupted fields for exceptional privacy. This space is designed for entertaining, featuring a lawn, timber pergola with lighting, and a hot tub
