An extended four bedroom house occupying a favoured location within a quarter mile of the seafront in the Langney Point area of Eastbourne, forming part of a terrace of similar properties and providing deceptively spacious accommodation. The ground floor includes a 19' sitting room which opens into the 15' dining room extension. The garage has been converted into a fourth bedroom/third reception room and there is also a cloakroom/wc. The three first floor bedrooms are all double rooms and are served by a generous bathroom with both a bath and shower cubicle. The house is set within attractive gardens to the front and rear; the latter is principally paved for ease of maintenance with a greenhouse and side access. and enjoys a westerly aspect. Although the house would benefit from modernisation and redecoration, it does benefit from gas central heating and sealed unit double glazing and provides the basis for a very comfortable family home. Local shopping facilities are within a few hundred yards in Beatty Road whilst there area number of supermarkets in the immediate vicinity.
