Overall Description

This is a spacious and nicely presented detached bungalow in a quiet cul-de-sac location in the popular seaside village of Dymchurch. The property was built in 1970 and extensively updated when the current owners bought it. It has three bedrooms, although since the addition of the conservatory to the rear, the third bedroom has been used as a dining room. The property also has a sitting room with bay window, kitchen, bathroom, separate cloakroom, conservatory, entrance hall and front porch, so has plenty of spacious and flexible living accommodation for you to enjoy. Outside there is a pleasant sunny garden with brand new fence, detached garage and front garden with a long driveway offering plenty of off-street parking. If you are looking for a good-sized home in a peaceful location just a short walk from the beach then viewing is highly recommended.

Location

Living in Dymchurch offers a relaxed coastal lifestyle centred upon the glorious three-mile stretch of flat, sandy beach, perfect for walking along the sea wall trail, sea bathing or beach sports. The village has a good range of shops, pubs, cafes and restaurants including a Tesco Express Supermarket and other more tourist focussed attractions such as the Romney, Hythe and Dymchurch railway. There is plenty for locals too with the New Romney Hub Community Centre and other community centres in the area. Romney Marsh is on your doorstep, with direct access to its unique countryside, famous Martello Towers and nearby nature reserves like Dungeness. There are High Street shops, supermarkets and other amenities available at Hythe and Ashford which also has fast trains to London.
