COUNTRY

Entrance lobby, First floor hall, Living room, Kitchen/dining room, Second floor landing, 2 bedrooms, Bathroom and separate shower room, Gas heating, EPC rating C

The property is situated above a retail unit in the heart of the Conservation Area of the Ancient Town and Cinque Port of Rye, renowned for its historical associations, medieval fortifications and fine period architecture with half timbered houses clustered around the Parish Church of St Mary the Virgin. The town has a comprehensive range of shopping facilities and an active local community, with the arts being strongly represented. Rye Festival is held annually. From the town there are local train services to Eastbourne and to Ashford with high speed connections to St. Pancras London in 37 minutes.

The property forms all of the first and second floors of a three storey Arts and Crafts building presenting Tudor style half timbered external elevations beneath a peg tiled roof.

From the High Street a panelled front door opens into a small entrance vestibule with a moulded dado rail and a turned staircase off to a half landing with a walk-in storage cupboard and a further short flight of stairs to the first floor hallway.

The well proportioned, south facing living room has a 7'6 wide jettied bay window with a wood block polished window seat, leaded light windows with oak mullions and a Tudor style carved oak outer surround, together with a fireplace with brick quoins and returns, an oak bressumer and a fitted wood burning stove, oak flooring.

The kitchen/dining room is fitted with an extensive range of hand crafted Smallbone wall and base units incorporating a sink with mixer tap, Corian work surfaces with tiled splash backs, electric hob with an electric fan assisted oven under and a filter hood above. In addition there is a matching fitted dresser with drawers, cupboards and open display shelving, terracotta tiled floor and open understairs cupboard. There are full width and full height opening bi-folding windows/doors to the rear with far reaching roofscape and rural views.

On the second floor, there is a landing with a window to the side and a hatch with a retractable ladder to a roof space providing useful storage. Stripped pine floorboards throughout.

Bedroom 1 is double aspect with leaded light oak mullion windows looking along the High Street and has a fireplace with a wrought iron grate with a glazed tiled hearth. Bedroom 2 has an oak mullioned window to the rear providing distant rural views, together with an Edwardian fireplace with wrought iron inset. Bathroom comprising panelled bath, w.c, wash hand basin, window to side. Shower room with large walk in shower, wash hand basin, w.c and window to side.
