28 Atkinson drive, Kettering, NN15 7NZ

Offers in excess of £225,000

Atkinson Way is set within the popular West Hill development in Kettering and offers an ideal first time buy with superb road links, including easy access to the A14 for commuters. The property provides a practical, modern layout that makes excellent use of space, with a comfortable living and dining room that works well for everyday life and entertaining, alongside a separate kitchen and a convenient ground floor WC. Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en suite, plus a family bathroom, creating a layout that suits first time buyers, downsizers or investors. Outside, the home benefits from off road parking to the front, while the rear garden is designed for easy enjoyment with a patio seating area and a raised lawn, making it a great space for summer evenings and low maintenance outdoor living.
