

179, Hurdsfield Road, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK10 2QX

This delightful three-storey weavers cottage is ideally situated within easy walking distance of Macclesfield town centre and the railway station, offering superb convenience for the town's amenities and transport links.

Freshly decorated throughout, the property provides spacious and well-presented accommodation arranged over three floors. Benefiting from double glazing and gas-fired central heating, this charming home combines period character with modern comfort.

The ground floor features a welcoming lounge that flows through to a dining area, creating a warm and sociable living space, along with a nicely appointed kitchen. To the first floor there is a double bedroom with en-suite and a family bathroom, whilst to the second floor there are two further double bedrooms.

To the rear of the property there is a communal courtyard area.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.

Proceed out of Macclesfield along Hurdsfield Road (B5470) signposted Whaley Bridge and the property can be found on the right hand side.
