

New Street, Newtown, Berkeley

£1,150

Council Tax: B

Tenure:

Found on New Street in the village of Sharpness, near the historic castle town of Berkeley, Gloucestershire, this period property offers deceptively spacious accommodation spread over two floors.

On entering the property you are met by a sitting area opening into the dining area with stairs leading to the first floor. The fitted kitchen with oven and hob, is found to the rear of the property with rear lobby with utility area and door leading to the rear garden. On the first floor you will find a landing area with doors leading to the generous bathroom with both bath and shower cubicle for ease of use. There are also two good size bedrooms on this floor.

Outside the property has a good size rear garden with paved patio areas and lawned area leading down the garden to the off street parking for one car with storage shed.
