About this property

A four-bedroom detached home occupying a highly regarded residential position on Dingle Road, one of Abergavenny's most sought-after residential areas, and enjoying exceptional far-reaching views across the town towards the Bloreng Mountain. The property offers well proportioned accommodation and is configured as an 'upside down' house, with the bedroom accommodation arranged on the lower ground floor and the principal living spaces positioned above to make the most of the fabulous views. The raised ground floor comprises an entrance hall leading to a generous 19' living room, with patio doors opening onto a veranda with steps down to the garden. There is also a separate dining room, fitted kitchen, guest WC and useful direct access to the integral 19' garage with electric door. The lower ground floor provides four bedrooms, including principal bedroom with extensive storage, and one with patio doors out to the garden. The bedrooms are complemented by a family bathroom, separate shower room and WC and there is also a useful store room. Externally, the property is approached via a driveway providing parking for two vehicles, together with an established front garden. To the rear is an attractive south-facing garden, enjoying a good degree of privacy and, most notably, stunning panoramic views across Abergavenny and along the Usk Valley. The elevated position allows the outlook to be enjoyed from a number of points within the property and garden, creating a wonderful sense of space. Dingle Road remains one of Abergavenny's most sought-after residential locations, conveniently positioned for the town centre, local amenities and excellent transport links, whilst providing immediate access to the surrounding countryside and its many walks. Offered with no onward chain.

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.
