Being offered for sale chain-free, this extended property presents itself as an ideal purchase for those buyers seeking a home close to the town and local amenities as well as access to the main A30 trunk road just a few moments away. The ground floor has a feature lounge with an open fireplace while the dining room has uPVC double glazed doors leading to the outside with the additional accommodation comprising of a kitchen and cloakroom, while to the first floor are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally, to the rear is an enclosed garden with access to a detached single garage.

Location

Camborne is a popular town which is rich in its industrial history with many historical buildings - a reminder of its mining heritage. The town centre has a good range of multiples along with other facilities, such as schools, out-of-town supermarkets and a leisure centre. Nearby is the popular Tehidy Woods with its acres of woodlands to explore with its meandering paths linking it to the majestic North Cliffs. From here can be enjoyed panoramic coastal views with pathways leading to surfing beaches, such as Gwithian, Porthtowan and Portreath.

The cathedral city of Truro lies approximately twelve miles distant being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce.
