Its flexibility, setting and generous gardens make it ideally suited to families seeking both space and lifestyle in equal measure. A distinguished Suffolk home designed for modern country living.

A Home of Scale, Light & Setting.

Ground Floor – Effortless Entertaining & Everyday Living

The welcoming entrance hall provides a natural divide between formal and informal spaces, creating excellent flow across the ground floor.

The principal sitting room, extending to almost 30 feet in length, is a particularly striking space — ideal for entertaining on a grand scale yet equally suited to relaxed family evenings.

At the heart of the home lies the outstanding kitchen/breakfast room (over 25 feet in length). Designed to be both functional and social, this is a room where daily life unfolds — generous preparation space, excellent storage, walk-in pantry and ample room for dining and gathering. A separate utility room ensures practicality is thoughtfully catered for.

Further reception accommodation includes:

- An elegant dining/family room
- A dedicated study for home working

A utility room and cloakroom complete the ground floor, reinforcing the house's suitability for entertaining and larger households.

The ground floor alone extends to over 1,500 sq ft, offering genuine flexibility for changing needs.

First Floor – Comfort & Proportion

Upstairs, the sense of space continues.

The principal bedroom suite is particularly impressive, extending to over 20 feet in length and enjoying open countryside views. With en-suite facilities and excellent proportions, it provides a calm and private retreat.

Three further double bedrooms, all generously sized, are served by a well-appointed family bathroom. The balance and symmetry of the first floor create a harmonious and practical arrangement ideal for families.
