Guide Price £515,000

Higher Oldborough, Morchard Bishop

- Spacious 4 bedroom character property
- Well maintained gardens
- Outbuildings
- Thatched (but not grade II listed)
- High ceilings & well proportioned rooms
- Far reaching views to Dartmoor
- 3 Reception rooms
- No onward chain

A semi-detached cottage with a notably generous feel, set in a rural position with far-reaching views towards Dartmoor. While traditionally styled, the property offers more space and ceiling height than many cottages, giving it something closer to a farmhouse in both scale and layout.

The kitchen has a country style, fitted with granite worktops, integrated washing machine and dishwasher, and centred around an original inglenook fireplace with bread oven—an authentic feature that reflects the age of the building. A separate dining room includes a pressure jet Rayburn, which also heats the radiators throughout the house, adding both function and character.

The main sitting room is comfortable and well proportioned, with a multi-fuel woodburning stove, while a third reception room—complete with original meat hooks—offers a flexible space that could suit a home office, studio or playroom.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom is particularly spacious and includes an en suite with both bath and separate shower. There are three further bedrooms, all of a good size, along with a family bathroom also fitted with a bath and separate shower.

Outside, the rear courtyard provides a large and practical working space, with a range of outbuildings including an outside WC, greenhouse and a substantial workshop. There is gated parking for up to four vehicles, along with space for storage and equipment, and the oil tank is also housed here. To the front, a lawned garden with a mature mulberry tree leads down to a productive vegetable garden with raised beds.

The property is available with no onward chain, and combines practical space, original features and outdoor potential, all set within a landscape that gives a strong sense of the surrounding Devon countryside.

Agents Note: There is a paddock of 2.5 acres (approx) with a well built timber barn available by separate negotiation, please enquire with the office for more details.

Please see the floorplan for room sizes.

Some images in this brochure may have been digitally enhanced or virtually staged, for example by adding lighting effects, twilight ambience, furniture or décor, to help illustrate how the property could look. These images are only illustrative and do not show the current fixtures, fittings or condition. Always rely on your viewing for an accurate understanding of the property.

We're informed by the seller that the property has a private drainage system, which they advise is in working order. Buyers should satisfy themselves regarding its type, condition and regulatory compliance with their conveyancer.

We're informed by the seller that the property includes cob walls and/or a thatched roof. Such construction may have specific maintenance and insurance requirements, and buyers should make their own enquiries before purchase.

MORCHARD BISHOP is a popular village, sitting amid a network of more than 60 footpaths and bridleways including the Two Moors Way, for which it is the mid-way point. Famous for having the longest row of thatched, terraced cottages in England, Morchard is a popular village not least because of its C of E primary school (OFSTED Good), excellent pub, doctor's surgery, and community run shop. There's a thriving community scene offering a variety of events and activities ranging from the monthly produce market to sporting clubs. Nearby is Morchard Road where you can catch a train on the scenic Tarka Line to Barnstaple or Exeter. For a wider range of shops and amenities Crediton and Exeter are 7-miles and 15-miles away respectively. A regular daily bus service from the village also provides access to both these towns.
