Fanton Walk

The home opens into a welcoming entrance hall that connects to all principal rooms. To the front of the property are two generously sized double bedrooms, measuring 11'11" x 12'10" and 9'8" x 12'10", offering comfortable and versatile sleeping quarters. At the end of the hallway, Bedroom 3 measures a generous 11'10" x 7'10" and enjoys a view over the rear garden.

The interior flows seamlessly into the stunning John Lewis of Hungerford kitchen, measuring 14'1" x 15'11", complete with premium cabinetry, a central island, and a separate utility room (15'5" x 7'8"), providing the perfect combination of style and functionality.

The rear extension is a true centrepiece, featuring vaulted ceilings, expansive glazing, and air conditioning that keeps the space comfortable year-round. This impressive lounge and dining area, measuring 14'4" x 21'2", opens through bi-fold doors onto the beautifully landscaped 100ft rear garden, seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor living. The garden is thoughtfully arranged with patio and turf areas, enjoys a totally unoverlooked aspect, and provides direct access via a secure gate to the popular Shotgate Park, which includes play areas, basketball courts, and table tennis facilities.

A spacious loft room, measuring 14'2" x 27'1" and fitted with Velux windows and air conditioning, provides additional flexible living space, adding versatility to the home.

Externally, the home benefits from a driveway to the front providing off-street parking for multiple vehicles, as well as an electric vehicle charging point, offering convenience for modern family life. The property previously had approved planning permission for roof dormers and a side extension (now expired), providing potential for future enhancement, subject to necessary consent.

The property is within walking distance of Ofsted-rated Outstanding infant, primary, and secondary schools, local shops, and enjoys excellent transport links. Wickford Railway Station (1.6 miles) provides direct trains to London Liverpool Street and Stratford in approximately 40 minutes.
