Location

Lochgair is an attractive and sheltered ribbon settlement of homes and Fasdale is within a few minutes walk to the pretty sheltered bay of Loch Gair and the local hotel. There are also many varied walking routes from the nearby forestry car parks. Lochgilphead is about 6 miles to the southwest and has a fine range of local shops, services and supermarkets which easily cater to everyday needs and fuller weekly shops. Lochgilphead has a health care centre as well as a library, a good range of professional services and is home to the Mid Argyll swimming pool. Primary and secondary schooling is available in Lochgilphead. The town also benefits from a newly re-vamped front green offering outdoor activities for all the family. Inveraray (16 miles) has an extensive range of popular tourist shops and a number of friendly local hotels, country pubs and restaurants. Oban is about 44 miles to the northwest where there are further larger shops and services, Glasgow City is about 78 miles to the southeast and offers a full range of higher and further education services as well as all the cultural and professional services normally connected with a major city. The A83 and A82 provide access to central Scotland. Arrochar has a mainline rail station with a service to and from Glasgow city centre and a sleeper service to London. The local area offers much in the way of outdoor pursuits including cycle routes, challenging hill climbs, walks and several golf courses. Sea, river and loch fishing is also available in the area as are a number of local events on throughout the year. For sailors, the sea lochs of the west of Scotland offer safe anchorages as well as spectacular coastal sailing; there are marina and chandlery services at Ardrishaig, Tarbert, south at Portavadie and in the northwest via the Crinan canal at Ardfern in Loch Craignish for easy western isles and north coast access. Citylink/West Coast Motors run a regular bus service from Campbeltown to Glasgow for those wishing to use public transport. The local bus stops connect all the villages and towns on this route 3 times per day.
