This beautifully refurbished apartment benefits from its own private entrance, opening into a lobby that leads to an impressive dual-aspect reception room. This elegant apartment features bespoke joinery and a Chesneys limestone fireplace with burner. Large windows and double glazing flood the room with natural light, while herringbone wooden flooring adds warmth and sophistication throughout. The separate kitchen is finished to the highest standard with marble surfaces and premium appliances. Both bathrooms feature luxurious underfloor heating for added comfort. The principal bedroom includes an en suite bathroom. A second generously sized bedroom with direct access to a private rear patio garden and a well-appointed guest bathroom. Set within a fully portered 24-hour building with a resident porter, the property also benefits from a secure underground parking space.
