

Constantine Road, London, NW3 2LR

Asking Price £585,000

A bright, spacious, and beautifully presented two double-bedroom, bay-fronted apartment occupying the first floor of an immaculate period house in a wonderful location, adjacent to Hampstead Heath.

Extending to approximately 557 sq. ft. the property comprises a very bright and generous reception with high ceilings, bay window, wooden floors, and feature period fireplace, separate kitchen, 2 double bedrooms, and a beautiful fully-tiled bathroom. The master bedroom also has the potential to reinstate an ensuite shower room currently used as storage.

The apartment benefits from a fabulous location less than a one minute walk from the southern entrance to Hampstead Heath and is within a short walk of the varied amenities, transport options, restaurants, pubs and shops of South End Green, with Belsize Park Underground Station (Northern

- Beautifully Presented Apartment
- 2 Double Bedrooms
- Fitted Storage
- No Onward Chain
- Wonderful location by the Heath
- Period features and high ceilings
- Luxurious Bathroom