80 Orme Road is a light and airy property conveniently situated in Bangor. The property has four spacious bedrooms, one shared bathroom and a shared toilet. There is a comfortable living room with large sofas and a big bay window and the recently upgraded kitchen / dining room is well equipped with a fridge, washing machine, oven & hob & a large freezer in the hallway so there is plenty of space to socialise with your housemates.

There is unlimited internet included in the rent which is great for your studies.

Orme Road is within walking distance to the town centre, University buildings and the nearby harbour, and is a superb location for students wanting to experience all that Bangor has to offer. The shops & restaurants on the High Street are only a short walk away as is the train station, bus station and taxi ranks so transport is not needed. However, if you do have a car there is plenty of on road parking outside the house.
