Discover this immaculate three-double bedroom semi-detached home on Ashcroft Lane, Shenstone, beautifully extended and renovated throughout, offering stunning open views to the rear and a landscaped rear garden. Available with no upward chain.

Nestled on the outskirts of the charming Shenstone village, this property enjoys a semi-rural setting whilst benefiting from convenient access to local amenities. Shenstone offers a delightful village atmosphere with shops, pubs, and highly-regarded schools. The location provides excellent transport links to surrounding ideal areas, including easy access to nearby towns and cities, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a balance of peaceful living and practical connectivity.

The ground floor welcomes you with a storm porch leading into a bright hallway with a convenient cloakroom. The heart of the home is the luxurious open-plan kitchen/diner, seamlessly flowing into a stunning conservatory featuring a cosy wood burner. A separate lounge provides an additional reception space, whilst a practical utility room and a small study offer further functionality. The integrated garage provides useful storage. Upstairs, the first floor boasts three generously proportioned double bedrooms, including a master bedroom, all complemented by a beautifully appointed family bathroom.

With its superb internal presentation, fabulous views, and thoughtful extensions, this home offers comfortable and stylish living in a desirable village location. Early viewing is highly recommended.
