PROPERTY SUMMARY

Constructed circa 1880 this beautiful, deceptively spacious, three-bedroom cottage offers the perfect blend of period charm and versatile family accommodation conducive with modern living. Immaculately maintained internally, and with well-tended, substantial, mature gardens to the rear, this delightful home offers a discerning purchaser the rare opportunity to buy a traditional home in such excellent condition both inside and out.

The flexible and well-proportioned accommodation comprises; welcoming reception hallway with useful storage, generous front facing lounge with feature fireplace and gas fire inset, formal dining room, stylish, modern fitted kitchen with access to rear garden, bedroom to rear, and three-piece family shower room.

On the upper level are two generous double bedrooms both having the luxury of large walk-in closets. Completing the first-floor accommodation is an attractive, three-piece modern shower room, and a third bed/box room which would make an excellent nursery or home office.
