PROPERTY SUMMARY

Presenting a rare opportunity to acquire a main door, two-bedroom, ground-floor flat within a sought-after, central location is this beautifully presented home. Offering bright and deceptively spacious, all-on-the-level accommodation, generous and well-tended private gardens, and a fabulous location close to an excellent variety of amenities, coffee shops, restaurants, and the 3c bus stop to Glasgow this lovely property is sure to be popular.

The well-maintained layout of apartments comprises; entrance vestibule, welcoming reception hallway flooded with light streaming in from large picture window, generous front facing lounge with stunning detailed cornice work, ceiling rose, and feature fireplace with electric fire inset, and stylish modern dining size kitchen with oven, hob, and hood, and access to rear garden where a patio and timber decked area provides a pleasant space to enjoy a morning coffee or glass of wine.

Completing the sizeable accommodation are two double bedrooms, and a modern shower room with useful vanity storage. Further benefits of this immaculate period home are gas central heating and double glazing.
