MAIN HOUSE

No.1 Arthurstone Gardens is a truly one-of-a-kind Category 'B' Listed Family Home, dating back to around 1800, fully renovated and upgraded to a very high standard by the present owners, but retains its period character. The sellers have created a very special family home with three hugely impressive reception rooms housed in a large conservatory-style extension at the rear of the main house whilst the central feature of the property is its impressive four-storey folly tower, that rises prominently at the centre which includes the central hallway connecting to the main accommodation and also contains within it, the first floor music room or study/bedroom 4.

The slightly curved wings on either side of the tower provide generous, all-on-the-level accommodation throughout, and the main reception rooms enjoy a direct south-facing aspect onto the enchanting walled Georgian landscaped gardens. This includes a stunning 27ft dining room, a 24ft drawing room and 24ft sitting room, all featuring wooden flooring, double glazed glass roofs with bespoke blinds and wonderful garden views. A feature spiral staircase leads from the dining room to the first floor study/bedroom 4, presently utilised as a music room.

Additional accommodation boasts the superb bespoke open-plan fitted kitchen, breakfast room and family area with French doors leading to the paved patio and gardens. The kitchen is fitted with modern units, an Aga and a walk-in larder, while a utility room across from the reception hall offers further storage and appliance space. The principal bedroom lies on the west wing, with built-in bedroom furniture, feature full length arched window and French doors leading to a south-facing flagstone patio terrace. There is a second double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and family bathroom. Bedroom 3 lies off the hallway and has an adjoining shower room.

No.1 Arthurstone Gardens is an exceptional Country House, well-designed to a high specification, forming a comfortable and spacious family home situated within the beautifully landscaped walled garden at Arthurstone.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the accommodation, location and character offered with this outstanding 'B' Listed' Period House that could be your dream home!

GARDENER'S COTTAGE

As you approach the Main House, you are greeted by a delightful former Gardener's Cottage, which adds to the overall charm of No.1 Arthurstone Gardens. The surrounding grounds feature a level lawn and vibrant, well-stocked flower beds, creating a serene and inviting atmosphere.

The layout of the Cottage is both welcoming and homely, ensuring a comfortable living experience for all. The Gardener's Cottage, of approx. 818 sq ft, is a versatile addition to the property. It comprises a sitting room with log burning stove, fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and bathroom, making it perfect for use as a guest suite or a private retreat for family and friends. Whether you are looking for an additional family residence, work-from-home space, ideal airbnb opportunity or simply a peaceful getaway, this delightful property is sure to impress.

LOCATION

From your doorstep at No.1 Arthurstone Gardens you're perfectly positioned to access Scotland's remarkable array of historical treasures spanning over 5,000 years of human civilisation, from ancient Neolithic monuments to Roman fortresses and royal palaces in this remarkable landscape that tells the story of Scotland's rich and complex past.

Set peacefully within the former Georgian walled garden at Arthurstone in the heart of Strathmore, a fertile plain which lies between the Sidlaw Hills to the south and the Angus Glens to the north, it is famous for its attractive scenery, productive farmland and for Glamis Castle, childhood home of the late Queen Mother.

Surrounded by Perthshire countryside in a most attractive and exclusive rural location between the village of Meigle and the small town of Coupar Angus, the area is well placed for road accessibility to Perth, Dundee, Aberdeen and Edinburgh. The A94 through Coupar Angus connects Perth to Forfar and the main Dundee to Aberdeen road (A90). Perth is only 16 miles away and offers a comprehensive range of High Street shops and services with the M90 motorway connection to Edinburgh, while the A9 gives access to Stirling and Glasgow. The vibrant City of Dundee is just 13 miles away with main east coast line railway line and is just 30 minutes from Dundee Airport - offering direct flights to London City Airport. There are a number of public schools in the area including Glenalmond, Strathallan, Dundee High School (a dedicated bus runs from Meigle to Dundee High School) and St. Leonards. Prep schools include Craigclowan, Ardvreck and St Leonards-New Park.

Nearby Meigle has a local shop, two cafés and a primary school, while Coupar Angus further amenities, including a local shop, a bakery, a pharmacy and a primary school. Six miles to the west, Blairgowrie and Rattray provides further excellent local amenities, including High Street shops and supermarkets, while you can find city shopping and leisure facilities in Perth or Dundee.

The recreational facilities in the area are excellent. There are three golf courses at Alyth, together with further courses at Blairgowrie including a championship course. Carnoustie and St Andrews are within easy driving distance. Fishing can be taken on the Tay and the River Erich as well as on the nearby River Isla. The nearby glens provide some of the best hill walking in eastern Scotland and skiing at Glenshee.

GARDENS & OUTBUILDINGS

No.1 Arthurstone Gardens is accessed via a shared private road before a private sweeping drive leads to the block-paved driveway, which provides plenty of parking space and access to the detached triple garage. The delightful former Gardener's Cottage is in front of the main house, with an area of level lawn and colourful, well-stocked flower beds in front of both the main house and cottage

The magnificent walled Georgian gardens at the rear of the main house are one of the property's most notable features and will delight all who view! Facing directly south this glorious garden provides the main house with an idyllic, picturesque setting occupying part of what was once the grand Georgian garden for Arthurstone Estate. It has retained much of the symmetry associated with the traditional planned garden with gravel pathways lined by reputedly, the original 1851 box hedging and numerous mature trees including ornamental birch trees, cherry, yew and fruit trees. There are peaceful corners with gravel beds, terracing, various herbs and shrubs. Sheltered patio terraces margin the house itself, a suntrap for alfresco living and entertaining, against the backdrop of the beautiful walled gardens. There is also an orchard within the walled gardens, a peaceful, shaded meadow area.

To the North West of the house, there is a private woodland area with a traditional stone outbuilding and exceptional far-reaching views across the neighbouring countryside, to the distant hills.
