The sitting room provides an elegant setting for relaxation having a large fireplace set into a wood surround with an inset wood burning stove. While the games room offers a more intimate everyday space. Accessed from the sitting room is a garden room, flooded with natural light, courtesy of the leaded light doors and windows arranged along the rear elevation. The combined kitchen/breakfast and family room has an extensive range of "Poggenpohl" fitted cabinets at base and at high levels. A fridge is integrated within the kitchen which also accommodates a gas fired "AGA" with an extractor hood over and a companion oven. A peninsular unit forms an ideal family breakfast bar. There remains space for a family area, an ideal location to relax and spend some leisure time in the company of friends and family. A door opens from this area to the garden creating an effortless indoor/outdoor flow. Adjacent is a practical utility room with 2 integrated dishwashers, a sink unit and wall mounted boiler. Direct access is available from here to a small greenhouse. An internal door opens to the large garage with cloakroom.

On the first floor there are four double bedrooms, three of which have built in wardrobes, and a good size bedroom which can accommodate either a small double or a single bed. The Master bedroom has an en suite facility which is only 3 years old and there are two additional family bathrooms.
