Cherry Garden Lane

Danbury, CM3 4QP

Tucked away behind a gated driveway along the highly desirable Danbury Lane, this truly exceptional four-bedroom detached residence effortlessly combines charm, character and generous living space. Immaculately presented throughout, the home exudes warmth and has clearly been lovingly maintained. From the inviting interiors and impressive vaulted ceilings to the beautifully established gardens, every aspect creates a wonderful setting for family life. Offered with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to secure a truly special home.

Perfectly positioned just a short stroll from the heart of Danbury Village, the property enjoys convenient access to a wonderful selection of local amenities, independent shops and everyday essentials. Excellent transport connections include nearby bus services, easy access to Chelmsford City Centre and the A12. Families are particularly well catered for, the location is particularly appealing for families, with well-regarded local schooling and access to Chelmsford's grammar schools, subject to individual admissions criteria and catchment eligibility.

The ground floor welcomes you into beautifully proportioned accommodation, designed for both relaxed family living and entertaining. The impressive lounge forms the heart of the home, featuring a fireplace, generous dining space and doors opening directly onto the garden. The bright and spacious kitchen offers a further dining area, with a striking deep-red AGA taking centre stage. A separate utility room provides practical access to the integral garage, while a dedicated home office and downstairs WC complete this versatile floor. Upstairs, four beautifully appointed double bedrooms showcase charming exposed beams and vaulted ceilings. The generous principal suite benefits from extensive fitted wardrobes and its own en-suite facilities, while a spacious family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

Outside, the beautifully established gardens offer a wonderful sense of privacy and tranquillity, with a generous lawn, mature planting and a patio accessed directly from the lounge, perfect for summer entertaining. Additional side gardens provide versatile outdoor spaces, while the gated driveway offers ample parking alongside the garaging.
