Warning: Your Furniture May Finally Get the Space It Deserves.

If you've ever walked into a property and immediately started planning where the sofa goes, this could be the one.

Situated within the ever-popular Clarkebourne Drive, this attractive three-bedroom semi-detached home has been significantly enhanced by a substantial ground floor rear extension, creating the kind of versatile living space that modern families are constantly searching for but rarely find.

An entrance porch welcomes you inside before leading to an inviting hallway. The spacious lounge offers the perfect setting for cosy movie nights, lazy Sunday afternoons and everything in between, while a separate study provides a dedicated workspace for home workers, homeworkers or those simply seeking a little peace and quiet away from the rest of the household.

Then comes the showstopper.

The impressive extended kitchen/diner is the heart and soul of this home. Spacious, sociable and flooded with natural light, it's the sort of room that effortlessly hosts everything from rushed weekday breakfasts to family celebrations that somehow end three hours later than planned. Whether you're a keen cook, enthusiastic entertainer or professional takeaway orderer, this space simply works.

A handy ground floor WC ensures guests won't be queuing for the upstairs bathroom, while the first floor offers three good-sized bedrooms and a well-appointed family bathroom, providing comfortable accommodation for families of all shapes and sizes.

Outside, the rear garden offers plenty of room for summer barbecues, children's adventures, four-legged family members or simply enjoying a coffee while pretending you'll tackle the gardening this weekend. To the front, driveway parking means arriving home is always refreshingly straightforward.

This is a property that understands modern life. It offers the space to work from home, entertain friends, raise a family and still have room left over for the things that matter most.

Big kitchen energy, a study for your Zoom calls and a garden for your summer plans – what's not to love?
